"Your product and customer service makes it easy to partner with you. There was a certain expectation and need when I came to campus to take the program to the next level. Thanks to the quality and innovation GK provides it allows our chefs the convenience to focus on other aspects of the business like garnishing, execution, merchandising, and delivery. GK does a great job of staying up to speed with current trends, which offers our sales people a continuous opportunity to upsell, and they have been doing that. You have bent over backwards for us and it is truly appreciated."
